Australia's Best Cars crown the Golf 118TSI as 'Best Mid size car over $30,000'

Volkswagen's acclaimed Golf 118TSI has added another significant title to its list of achievements by claiming the award as 'Best Mid size car over $30,000' in Australia's Best Car Awards 2009. The award winners were announced in a ceremony in Melbourne.

The Volkswagen Golf has recently come up trumps in a range of automotive awards. Both Carsguide and DRIVE announced the Volkswagen Golf 118TSI as the overall winner in their Car of the Year Awards for 2009.

Anke Koeckler, Volkswagen Group Australia's Managing Director, commented on this significant achievement: "2009 has been a big year for the Volkswagen Golf. Since the Australian market introduction of the new Golf early this year, the motoring media have taken a real liking to this model. It is fantastic to finish a successful year with a range of major awards. This is recognition for the fantastic engineering that has made the Volkswagen Golf such a great contender in its segment."

'Australia's Best Car Awards' are in their tenth year as a co-operation between the seven State and Territory based car clubs of Australia. This is the nation's most comprehensive and independent consumer focused vehicle testing and award program.
