Volkswagen's Success in DRIVE Car of the Year Awards 2007

Volkswagen has won two awards at the 'DRIVE Car of the Year Awards' for 2007. The details of the awards are as follows.

- 1. Best Performance Car under $60,000: Volkswagen Golf GTI
- 2. Best Convertible: Volkswagen Eos 2.0 TDI

Jutta Dierks, Managing Director – Volkswagen Group Australia said “obviously we were very proud to receive the award for Best Performance car under $60k last year, however to win again in 2007 is very good.”

In addition the Volkswagen Eos 2.0 TDI DSG also won DRIVE Car of the Year Award for Best Convertible. Jutta Dierks said “Since launching the Eos in the first quarter of this year we have been overwhelmed with the reaction from the consumer and motoring media. We always knew that we had something special with the Eos, and this award confirms it”.

This is the second year that the Drive Car of the Year Awards have been held. Eight Experienced motoring journalists from the Fairfax group of online and newspaper media, including The Sydney Morning Herald, The Age and Drive.com.au made up the judging panel.
